

Never Too Late:

A Glimpse Into the Life and Legacy of Ethel Percy Andrus
Original play by M.T. Cozzola

.....
Date: Saturday, October 22, 2016 from 2:00-4:30 pm

Place: Irish American Heritage Center
4626 North Knox Avenue, Chicago, IL 60630
Ample, free parking.

Cost: $40 ($35 for AARP members)
Catered appetizers, desserts, tea and coffee are included in the price of admission. Cash bar.

.....
Ethel Percy Andrus (1884-1967) spent much of her early life in Chicago, worked at Hull House, and later moved to California to work in the public schools both as a teacher and as a principal. After retiring, she founded AARP, the American Association of Retired Persons, and the National Retired Teachers Association.

Panel

Lily Liu, retired archivist of AARP

Arlene Crandall, executive director, Retired Teachers Association of Chicago

A representative of the Jane Addams Senior Caucus

Never Too Late is sponsored by AARP

Supporting organizations: American Association of University Women, Chicago Branch; Chicago Chapter, Coalition of Labor Union Women; and SAG/AFTRA.

BENEFIT FOR WWHP

Purchase tickets on WWHP website, www.wwhpchicago.org.

WORKING WOMEN'S HISTORY PROJECT

Connecting today with yesterday • Making women's history come alive

.....
Please contact us through Jackie Kirley: jackie@wwhpchicago.org or 773.896.3668